French Treaty Mail

An example of a letter sent from New York to France via British flag carrier with U.S. Mail contract under terms of the treaty of 1857.

U.S. Scott # 91 Grill 15 c black Lincoln with (New York Foreign Mail) cancel. City of origin was New York. 3ct domestic rate

Red indicates U.S. credit to France on prepaid letter. "F" indicates allowance for carriage on American Packet, with departure Aug 1 1857. This coincides with the sailing of the British liner line "City of Paris", sailing under a US government mail contract. The vessel was considered an American Packet even though she ran under a British flag.

Carried under "Closed mail" provisions, the letter was contained in a sealed mail bag, unopened in England, therefore carries no British receiving marks. French "Paid" indicates 4 ct French inland paid

French Transit hand stamp, 12 August Calais with "AM" designating carriage on an American Packet. 2 ct transit fee paid

Transit hand stamp of Paris/Bordeaux, on reverse, also 12 August, "H" designating crew or mail brigade

Final receiving hand stamp on reverse applied at Angoulême 12 August
